

CII CERTIFIED WAREHOUSE KAIZEN PRACTITIONER

- The course is organized in three modules that would be completed in 90 hours within 3 months. The second batch of the certification programme is scheduled from 12th July 2021.

- Indo-Japan Logistics Human Resource Development Cooperation

True Japanese view of “Kaizen” is more to do with mindset and approach towards continuous improvement. It is a way of doing work and achieving collective goals of the organization. Customer first, total optimization and life cycle cost are three key characteristics of every Certified Warehouse Kaizen Practitioners viewpoints and actions.

CII Certified Warehouse Kaizen Practitioner course is more than a qualification. Unlike any other Certification, this course provides accreditation jointly by Japan Institute of Logistics Systems and CII Institute of Logistics, following International Standards in certification of professional competencies.

Enrolment and eligibility criteria

The course is organized in three modules that can be completed in 90 hours within 3 months. The second batch of the certification programme is scheduled from 12th July 2021.

This is a professional accreditation programme; applicants shall be in supervisory or assistant managerial positions in Logistics site and must be authorized by employer.

Self-employed professionals can also apply with submission of self-employment evidence and warehouse facility access. All self-employed persons shall have minimum qualification of any undergraduate degree.

All applicants will undergo “mandatory online assessment” within 5 days from the date of Module 3 closure. To extend the benefits of progress made through many parts of course study, applicants can receive any of the three forms of recognition

CII Certified Warehouse Kaizen Practitioner

Accredited certification will be provided for all applicants scoring more than 80% in the “mandatory online assessment” and acceptance of employer or warehouse owner “authorized case study report”.

CII Pre-certified Warehouse Kaizen Practitioner

Pre-certification letter will be given for all applicants scoring more than 80% in the “mandatory online assessment”.

CII Appreciation letter of participation

All other applicants will receive “appreciation letter” citing participation in the programme.

[*Only e-certificate would be provided.]

Course details

Certified Warehouse Kaizen Practitioner course modules require considerable focus on study and practice. It follows “learning by doing” principle and therefore mandates every participant to practice key learnings in safe work environment under proper supervision.

Blended course design ensures participants will receive best value through online lectures, digital forums, workshops and assessments. The course is organized in three modules.

All participants can exchange views on the subject and share additional learning material from their experience in online course discussion forum. Course instructors will be moderators for online discussion forum.

Module	Learning outcomes	Schedule of course activities
		Self-study [Week 1]	Online lecture attendance [Week 2]	Learning by doing Practice assignment [Week 3] Case study report [Week 4]
Foundation Month 1 (30 hrs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognize the key role of warehouse in supply chains Familiarize with all relevant areas of warehouse Learn about common warehouse operations planning practices Explain the need to focus on warehouse excellence to achieve supply chain goals 	5 days (2 hrs each day)	5 days (2 hrs each day)	10 days (1 hr each day)
Warehouse Kaizen Month 2 (30 hrs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grasp current situation Plan improvement Implement, evaluate and establish improvement 	5 days (2 hrs each day)	5 days (2 hrs each day)	10 days (1 hr each day)
Workshop Month 3 (30 hrs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grasp the "before" situation, develop "after" state image Apply analytical methods and prioritize action plan Select warehouse kaizen suitable for horizontal deployment 	5 days (2 hrs each day)		10 days (2 hrs each day)

Delegate fee per participant is INR. 23,600 [Inclusive of GST]

Feedback from the first batch of participants

Being a KAIZEN Practitioner we have Strengthening ability of implementing, evaluating and establishing improvement. This program develop us working with global organization in a multi culture environment where requires greater awareness and behaviors.

- Mr Sudipta Dutta, Sr. Executive Diebold Nixdorf System Pvt Ltd

I am really thankful to CII for preparing me to be a kaizen practitioner. All the skill which I had acquired from this course was very useful and it helped us to reduce cost.

- Mr Pardeep, Project Head, Yamato Logistics India Pvt Ltd

For registration and details contact

Charles Arul Dawson
Deputy Director
Confederation of Indian Industry
charles.apk@cii.in

Confederation of Indian Industry
Institute of Logistics
Phase II - "B" Block
9th Floor, IIT Madras Research Park
Kanagam Road, Taramani,
Chennai - 600113
Tamilnadu, India
Phone: 044 6636 0300